ANNUAL CONFERENCE

MELBOURNE

17 – 19 June 2021

Renal care beyond a crisis: Possibilities and future directions

RSA is excited to announce that its 2021 Annual Conference will be delivered in a hybrid event format, offering an in-person conference experience and a virtual connection. This means more choice and more flexibility, delegates will be able to attend in person or access the conference content online if they are unable to travel. For more information on the hybrid event format, please visit – <https://www.renalsociety.org/education/2021-conference/welcome/>

We are excited to welcome you to the conference, the program will feature renowned speakers presenting on a range of topics including:

- What is on the horizon for renal care?
- Is this the time to translate evidence into clinical practice?
- Inter-professional collaboration in renal care
- Innovation to improve the lives of people with kidney disease
- Self-care for carers of people living with kidney disease
- Challenges in renal care and opportunities for improvement
- COVID-19 pandemic: impact and lessons for renal care
- Self-care of healthcare professionals in a crisis

Knowledge is advanced only when it is shared. In this regard we encourage you to submit an oral or poster presentation.

We look forward to welcoming you to the 2021 RSA Annual Conference.

Edward Zimbudzi – Conference Convenor
