RSA – Who are we

The Renal Society of Australasia (RSA) aims to advance the care of people with kidney disease and to be the peak body for renal nursing and related allied health professionals by:

- Delivering a cost effective and multi-media education program of relevant CPD eligible education
- Becoming the face of renal nursing and a “must-join” community
- Utilising advocacy to improve outcomes for patients with kidney disease
- Supporting/facilitating practice development, research and quality improvement
- Facilitating utilisation of clinical standard framework for renal professionals
- Governing the association with positive leadership that engages the branch committees and members to support delivery of the mission of the RSA
Our members

At the time of preparing this publication the RSA had more than 2100 active members. RSA Members reside in all states and territories of Australia, throughout New Zealand and around the globe.

The majority (95%) of our members are nurses, with a small yet important percentage of members from allied health disciplines, technicians, academics and industry representatives. Our members work in all areas of renal care, including haemodialysis, peritoneal dialysis, chronic kidney disease/predialysis, transplantation, vascular access, education, industry and academia.

Why Partner with the RSA?

There are 4 main reasons why organisations decide to partner with the RSA:

1. Brand Exposure
   Expose your company’s brand and messages to a targeted audience from across Australia, New Zealand and around the world.

2. Business Development
   Research customer attitudes and needs and identify new business opportunities.

3. Networking
   The opportunity to connect with key decision makers and influencers from within the renal sector.

4. Tailored Partnership Opportunities
   RSA welcomes the opportunity to collaborate with you in order to create a partnership package that best meets your organisation’s needs.

Branch Education
The RSA Branches provide the framework for local member engagement and education. The RSA has branches representing all states and territories of Australia and New Zealand. Local RSA members volunteer their time to join their branch committee which then works closely with the RSA Board to deliver high quality renal education. Each branch will aim to deliver one (1) symposium day per year, with some branches deciding to deliver two (2) i.e. metro and rural areas. These events are tailored to the local member needs and regularly attract 80 – 100 delegates.

Branch Symposium Sponsorship
All Branches (VIC, NSW/ACT, SA/NT, WA, QLD, TAS & NZ)

Entitlements include:
- Complimentary full registration for one (1) delegate per event
- Tabletop exhibition space
- Your company logo acknowledgement on all associated marketing materials & holding slides

National Workshops & Webinars
Launched in 2017, the RSA delivers a series of workshops designed to incorporate both theoretical knowledge and interactive hands on practical learning. Each series of workshops focuses on a topic/area of knowledge of interest to the membership base. Following the success of these events, it is anticipated that new workshops will be offered each year. Content, locations, dates, and number of events within each series will be tailored to meet membership needs. Sponsor input and consultation in relation to topics and locations etc would be most welcome.

RSA Proudly delivers a webinar series throughout the year, exclusive to RSA members. Covering a broad range of topics. RSA webinars bring expert presenters live to members, providing an opportunity for members to earn valuable CPD hours. Each webinar attracts between 50 – 100 participants, and following the live viewing, is made available at no cost, via the RSA on-line education platform to all RSA members. This is a wonderful opportunity for sponsors to support and collaborate with the RSA in areas of new research and specialist presenters.

Terms & Conditions

The Renal Society of Australasia (RSA) will take all diligent care to fulfil the abovementioned partnership opportunities.

All monetary amounts are in Australian dollars and exclude the Goods and Services Tax (GST).

Partnership benefits will be allocated only on receipt of a signed agreement. A letter of confirmation will be emailed to confirm the agreement, together with a tax invoice for the required amount. The payment is due 30 days from the date of the tax invoice.

RSA agrees to use all the funds provided to support the organisation in its vision to “support members to advance the care of people with kidney disease.” This includes planning and promotion of events, subsidising the cost of management, hospitality and communication. Partnership funds will not be expended on any entertainment that is incidental to the activities of RSA.

All materials supplied by the partner require content approval via RSA prior to release.

RSA agrees to take all appropriate measures to ensure that all activity complies with all applicable laws, regulations and policies. RSA agrees not to knowingly make any arrangements associated with educational activities that may place a partner in breach of Medicines Australia Code of Conduct Edition 18, or the Medical Technology Association of Australia Code of Practice.

RSA will not supply member email, telephone or postal details to partners, except for event attendance lists that may be required by partners for compliance reasons. Attendance lists must not be transferred in whole or part to any third party or used for purposes related to future conferences.

No partner may assign, sublet or apportion whole or any part of their partnership. Partnerships are offered to sole entities, and cross promotion is not permitted. Partnership entitlements will be delivered only after receipt of the required payment.
