Jon Hosking

Clinic Manager, Diaverum Toto Ora Dialysis Clinic

Jon Hosking has been a renal nurse for twenty years, and Dialysis Clinical Nurse Specialist at Sir Charles Gairdner Hospital, a large tertiary hospital in Perth, Australia for the last eight of those. His new role is that of Clinic Manager for Diaverum’s new dialysis clinic in South Auckland.

Jon has been an active member of the RSA Western Australian Branch for a number of years and was the WA Chair from 2012 to 2015: until his move to NZ he was also the Chair of the WA Renal Nurse Sensitive Indicators Program and is the co-lead investigator for a research study presently being conducted in Perth related to the complexity of dialysis vascular access and successful cannulation.

Jon was elected RSA Vice-President at the RSA 2016 Conference in the Gold Coast, and was the winner of this year’s RSA Award.
