Cardiac Arrest in Dialysis Patients

Jo Whibley is a strong advocate for the ‘Chain of Survival’ when it comes to resuscitation. She firmly believes that it is each health professional’s role to ensure those links in the chain are as robust as possible.

In this webinar Jo focuses on how we can use the concept of the chain of survival to maximise outcomes for the renal dialysis patient in cardiac arrest.

Click here to register now

Presented by Jo Whibley

Jo Whibley is a Clinical Coach at Hauora Tairawhit, Gisborne Hospital. Her role focuses on resuscitation and quality improvement.

After qualifying as a Registered General Nurse at Royal United Hospital in Bath, UK, in 1991, Jo has had a passion for teaching resuscitation. She has been an Advanced Life Support Instructor since 1999 a CORE Instructor of New Zealand (CINZ) since 2009 and has sat on the CINZ executive since 2015. Jo also runs a private resuscitation education business in the primary care setting.

Information on how to connect to the video conference will be supplied to registered attendees prior to the broadcast.